He never wrote a line for the public until he was forty-live, his first productions signed 'Jose Billings,' having been written May252, 1863. Since then he has published a cast quantity of ce mile sketches, has made swach money for himself and much fun for others by his annual "All-minax," and-has leen a successful lyceum lecturer. His disregard of orthography and his quantic and ortiginal sayings have given him an extended reputation and one that is in no sense unworthy. Deceased was Wednesday morning sitting in a chair in the vestibile of the hotel, apparently enloying good health. When the physician artived he complehed of a severe pain in the other an remarked: "My doctors east ordered rest of brain," and added throwing back his long hist, "but, you can see I do not have to work my brain for, a simple lecture—ficones, spontaneously?" While he was talking he suddenly threw his hander over his head and fell backward unconsolous. He was carried to his room and at the end of three minutes the was exitined.
